

Tiyuv תיבּוּב Initiative is recruiting fellows for the inaugural cohort of our nine-month new evaluators training and mentoring program! Apply today at <https://tiyuv.org/apply>

Tiyuv is launching a new program to train Jews of Color (JOC's) in formal evaluation. Program completers will earn a completion credential and will be invited to join the Tiyuv team of professional evaluators for paid professional evaluation work.

Tiyuv will recruit and train a small cohort of new JOC evaluators each year. Trainings will be conducted by Tiyuv leadership with support from partners. External facilitators will include leaders from Women of Color-led organizations Ubuntu Research and Evaluation and iMilwaukee Evaluation!, the Wisconsin statewide American Evaluation Association affiliate.

New Evaluator Trainees will:

- receive a $10,000 training fellowship to cover their time and expenses dedicated to the program over one year, including attendance at monthly virtual trainings
- participate in hands-on evaluation training with one-on-one mentorship with evaluators and mentors from Tiyuv and partner institutions
- become members of the American Evaluation Association
- commit to participating in two Tiyuv culturally responsive evaluation workshops annually following their program completion
- receive a subsidy to support their participation in 1 external professional graduate-level evaluation course from an accredited institute of higher education within a prescribed period of time from their program completion

Tiyuv Stakeholder Convening, Winter 2022

Applications are due August 15, and the cohort will launch in September, 2022.

Please share this information across your networks.
Information on our program and how to apply can be found at: tiyuv.org/apply.
We look forward to hearing from you!
Questions? Email us at tiyuveval@gmail.com

Thanks to our major funders:

